

Expressions of a Penn Stater

November 11, 2011

As a Penn State graduate, I am deeply saddened by the events surrounding our beloved University. Although these past few days, as well as the days ahead will be difficult ones, I urge the University, students, and alumni to join together, so that we as a family can overcome these moments of hardship. Now is not the time for us to hang our heads in shame, accept ridicule or point fingers and place blame. We are a university with a million times more things to be proud of than to be ashamed of. We must be Penn State proud. For the glory...

Joseph L. Pena '00

« Penn State Family — We Honor Joe »

Tags: Penn State

May no act of ours bring shame.