

Twitter Responses

November 15, 2011

Earlier today, we asked on Twitter what WEstillARE means to our followers. Here are their responses:

@Riley165B “Always will be and will continue to be Penn State Proud”

@maddyypryor “means that we always have, and always will stand strong with pride, honor, and integrity.”

@Irnrc “means having a family of 40,000”

@Gammon074 “#WEstillARE means no matter what happens, we students won’t take things lying down. We will fight for what we think is right.”

@rodneyhughes “means we still stand for the values PSU professed itself to hold, and most here did and still do hold, even if some didn’t.”

@JennaRoseAdams “the school that I grew up hearing about, the institution that is molding my future, and the university I hope my children attend”

@epaps “It would be impossible for me to convey in 140 characters why I am so proud to be a Penn Stater.”

@MegPenza “means that penn state is forever and Penn Staters should strive to display demonstrate that everyday wherever they are”

If you have any more, tweet us @WEstillARE.

« Forever Lions, Endless Pride — Alma Mater Performed by the Concert Choir »