

Student Delivers Medical Supplies/Information in Rwanda

December 7, 2011

“While many of her fellow students were sharing turkey and cranberry sauce with their families during Thanksgiving break, Penn State Lehigh Valley sophomore Mandy Marquardt was cycling around Rwanda sharing information about proper diabetes care with its inhabitants.”

To read the entire Penn State Live Article about Mandy’s journey click here.

« Conversation with Acting Athletic Director Dr. Joyner — Men’s Basketball Team Gives Back to The Food Bank »

Tags: Commonwealth Campuses, international, Lehigh Valley, medical, Service

May no act of ours bring shame.