

TicketCity Bowl CEO on PSU

December 8, 2011

“And I think: Why did the abhorrent acts of one person, why does everybody want to drag the university down? What did the student-athletes on that team do? What did the faculty, the student body, the alumni, the fans do? They didn’t do anything. And I never understood that thinking. Why would you punish a team by not letting them go to a bowl game just because of one person’s acts?”

To read the full question and answer session with TicketCity Bowl CEO Tom Starr check out the Altoona Mirror’s original article here.

« Beyond the Letters — Penn State Presidential Profile: George Atherton »

Tags: football, Houston, Penn State, TicketCity Bowl, Tom Starr

May no act of ours bring shame.