

Today in PSU History: Underclassmen Customs and Dorm Entrances (December 14th)

December 14, 2011

From The Daily Collegian on Wednesday December 14th, 1977

Dorm Entrance System Approved “A key-card system will be installed on a trial basis in Curtin Hall next fall as an alternative to the night receptionist system.” This old system of a night receptionist was deemed ineffective and was suggested from the Security Council Chairman, Chris Carey, to install a new entrance system.

From The Daily Collegian on Saturday Morning, December 14th, 1940.

Customs Off – IF Freshmen Win Tug-of-War Today “If the freshmen win tomorrow, customs will be off for good,” W. Lewis Corbin '41, chairman of the Tribunal, announced last night in regard to the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war to be held on New Beaver Field track at 2:30pm today.” The competition was held with three various weight classes with three matches in each group, worth one point a piece. Victories were judged by the Tribunal members.

« Reminder: Joe Paterno Birthday Card Project — Today in PSU History: Henry Varnum Poor Resumes Work on Old Main Frescos \(Dec. 15th\) »

Tags: ARHS, campus, Carey, Chris, competition, Corbin, Curtin, Customs, Hall, key-card, Lewis, security, Tribunal, Tug-of-War, Underclassmen