David Pollack and THON Twitter UPDATE

December 22, 2011

Earlier this morning David Pollack, from ESPN College Gameday and Palmer and Pollack, updated his followers on Twitter that THON “has been all over it” in regards to what charity he should donate to.

To reiterate, Pollack stated earlier this month that for every new follower he received, he would donate $1 towards a charity suggested to him from his followers.

Here's how to vote for @THON:

1. Go to David Pollack's Twitter Page.
2. Click the Big Green Follow Button.
3. Tweet him something like this: “My vote is for @THON, help us conquer pediatric cancer! #FTK”

Again, be sure to tell everyone you know to follow him and send him a tweet voting for THON. The winner will be announced the day after Christmas.
