IST Start-Up Week to Highlight Penn State Alumni, Students, and Others

April 8, 2012

This week is a BIG week for the College of IST, showcasing young entrepreneurs from across the country, with a good number who graduated from Penn State, as part of the College's IST Start-Up Week. This week is packed full of presentations by the speakers (listed below), a Meet & Greet, and culminating in a Hackathon.

For more information, you can visit the Official Website or the Penn State Live Article.
