

Morethanafotballteam is another source of positive news

September 10, 2012

I'll keep this short and simple. Our blog, morethanafotballteam.blogspot.com, is not a competitor of WeStillAre.com. There's so much good that comes out of our university that we could never have too many outlets. Anyway, I just wanted people to know that we're out there, hoping to point out all the good things students, faculty and alumni are doing for the world. Please give us a visit at www.morethanafotballteam.blogspot.com. As always, "We Are."
